

Name:

Period:

Exit Slip

We see that movies have "ratings", banning certain people from viewing them. Should books or magazines ever be rated, banned, or censored? Take a stand and support your point with evidence?

Why might a movie or a book be censored? How might this censorship impact, or be impacted by, the First Amendment?

Name:

Period:

Exit Slip

We see that movies have "ratings", banning certain people from viewing them. Should books or magazines ever be rated, banned, or censored? Take a stand and support your point with evidence?

Why might a movie or a book be censored? How might this censorship impact, or be impacted by, the First Amendment?