

LEVEL 2 - SEMICOLONS AND CONJUNCTIVE ADVERBS

Directions: Place semicolons and commas appropriately. Then, classify the type of conjunctive adverb used.

1. The football team practiced a lot to prepare for their game consequently they won the game. _____
2. You helped me study all last week therefore I got an 'A' on the test. _____
3. I babysat my neighbor's children last night finally I have earned enough to buy those new jeans. _____
4. Tyrone wants to get his driver's license still he needs to earn ten more hours behind the wheel. _____
5. Cynthia went to bed early however she did not fall asleep until late. _____
6. It's good that you are getting involved in activities nevertheless school should be your first priority. _____
7. David shouldn't get so upset about not making basketball team besides he can try out next year. _____
8. First Miguel needs to finish all of his homework then he can come over to play video games. _____
9. There has been an increase of graffiti in the city hence the mayor has banned spray paint from stores. _____
10. You'll need to clean up the mess you made furthermore you'll need to apologize to your mother. _____
11. The flooding prevented the bus from arriving on time accordingly students arrived late to school. _____
12. To get ready for prom, Danielle bought a new dress also she made a hair appointment.
