

LEVEL 3 - SUBJECT VERB AGREEMENT

Directions: Read the given sentence. Create the appropriate verb using present tense to match the subject of the sentence.

1. to have: The cracked windshield, in addition to the torn upholstery and rusted body, _____ made Ruth's old car difficult to sell.
2. to be: This week's National Inquisitor claims that there _____ photographs of the Loch Ness Monster eating Elvis.
3. to work: At Tito's Taco Palace _____ friends who will stuff double meat into our burritos for free.
4. to crawl: On the tables in the library _____ the many germs that have escaped in the hot breath of hardworking students.
5. to be: None of this breakfast that Lilly Mae cooked _____ fit to eat.

Directions: Read the given sentence. If you find an error, draw a line through it and write the correction in the space provided. Keep all verbs in the present tense. If the sentence is correct, write CORRECT in the blank.

- _____ 1. Our dog Babe, together with her seven puppies, have chewed all the stuffing out of the sofa cushions.
- _____ 2. This weekend, a Great White shark, as well as a school of barracuda, are terrorizing the tourists at Daytona Beach.
- _____ 3. Where is the bowl of squid eyeball stew and the platter of broccoli-chocolate muffins that Madison made for Elizabeth's housewarming party?
- _____ 4. Here are the fifty-dollar bill that I promised for pet sitting Bo-Bo, my Jack Russell terrier, this weekend.
- _____ 5. Neither of my two older brothers invests money wisely.
- _____ 6. Every piece of popcorn and dropped chocolate on the theater floor has stuck in the treads of Larry's new running shoes.
- _____ 7. All that Susan wants this semester is a wink and a smile from the cute guy who sits next to her in algebra class.
- _____ 8. All that the cute guy wants this semester is the correct answers from Susan's algebra quiz.