LEVEL 5 - INTRO WORD AND PHRASE

Directions: This page is extra credit! Write a "Five Minutes in the Life Of...". Write at least one paragraph describing five minutes in the life of someone on the job. The challenge is, each one of your sentences should start with some sort of intro element (word/phrase)

Sample without intro elements:

Jack entered the ring. His opponent was already waiting there. Jack listened to the referee. Jack took off his robe and waited for the bell.

Sample with intro elements:

Lifting the robe and heading for the corner, Jack entered the ring. Meanwhile, his opponent was already waiting there. Worried more than usual because his opponent was so humongous, Jack listened to the referee. In front of his trainer, Jack took off his robe and waited for the bell.
