

LEVEL 2 - COLONS

Directions: Read the given sentence. Rework it to include a colon.

1. The opening phrases of Dickens' "A Tale of Two Cities" are memorable "It was the best of times, it was the worst of times."
2. Just a few colored pencils were available green, orange and purple.
3. It was useless to wait any longer the last bus had left.
4. No one knows me like my mother not my sister, my best friend, or my father.
5. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. closed his famous speech with the words from a spiritual "Free at last! Free at last! Thank God Almighty, we are free at last!"

LEVEL 2 - COLONS

Directions: Read these simple sentences. Improve them by rewriting to include a colon to make the sentence more forceful.

1. I really can't stand cold rice pudding.
2. The one country I would really like to visit is Mexico.
3. You have no choice but to accept the referee's decision.
4. Two things the company's success was founded on were service and value for money.
5. Climate change is the most serious threat to mankind's survival.