

LEVEL 3 - PRONOUN ANTECEDENT AGREEMENT & AMBIGUITY

Directions: Read the given sentence. Categorize the sentence by its Pronoun Problem. Rewrite for clarity.

A. Too Many Antecedents

Take the radio out of the car and fix it.

B. Hidden Antecedent

The candy dish was empty, but we were tired of eating it anyway.

C. No Antecedent

The witness called the television station, but they didn't answer.

Move the car out of the garage and paint it.

After Mary had paid Jane, she looked relieved.

Trumpet playing can be very entertaining, but it is a difficult instrument to master.

The student's mother felt upset when she received a "D" in mathematics.

My brother has been unemployed for three months. This makes him depressed.

Since my friends like meatballs, I often serve them as an appetizer.

It says on the bottle label that the chemical will kill weeds.

Mark visited Sam while he was in town.

People who have been heavy smokers for years often gain weight when they give it up.

As I was preparing the dog's meal, it whined incessantly.

Take the screens off the windows and wash them.

A visitor to Italy immediately notices how friendly they are.