

HONORS NARRATIVE QUICKWRITE PEER REVIEW

Review 1: Organization

Partner:

Directions: Read the narrative of your partner. Then, as best as possible, outline how the story is organized in terms of content. Disregard paragraphing - what is the organization of ideas? Fill out, in bullet points, the flow of the paper. Then, in the box on the side, discuss with your partner how the paper might be better arranged.

>>Consider: dialogue, flashbacks, setting the scene, wrapping up

Original Organization	Proposed Organization

Review 2: Word Choice

Partner:

Directions: Read the narrative of your partner. As you read, put a straight line _____ under words or phrases you find especially specific, memorable, or effective. Place a wavy line ~~~~~ under words or phrases you find weak, non specific, or ineffective.

Feedback:

This person should include more...

- Dialogue
- Specific nouns/verbs
- Figurative language
- Other

Review 3: Setting the Scene

Partner:

Directions: Read the narrative of your partner. As you read, fill out the table in regards to what you notice about the characters and the setting. Provide feedback in areas with limited or weak information. **If multiple settings or characters are presented, be sure that the author includes sufficient description for each provided.

Setting:
Time (day, year, etc.):
Place (local/global):
Other:

Character:
Looks like:
Says/Thinks/Feels:
Effect on other characters:

Review 4: Grammar/Mechanics

Partner:

Directions: Follow the given grammar checklist while reading and marking up your partner's narrative.

- Cross out "things", "stuff", "cool", "awesome", "kind", "really", and "very"
- Check that all sentences are complete (no fragments or run-ons)
- Check correct use of ,FANBOYS
- Check for dialogue punctuation